

Xsdot - Content services introduction

Xsdot developed a standard set of content components that are used in Xsdot's content management system. A content management system is a set of processes that are used to create and publish rich web documents (See Xsdot content management systems for more information). The content services are easily extended with custom made services and seamlessly integrate with other Xsdot services.

