

File service

With the file service it is possible to place and publish files (pdf, downloadable files, documents, etc.) into content and applications. All file types are supported, the files are presented as small or large icons including for example file name, size, description, owner and creation date. Files are also used in design templates as design elements.

The screenshot shows a web form titled "File service" with the following fields and options:

- item name: Pdf file
- item description: (empty text area)
- file name: xsdot documentation.pdf
- upload file: (empty text input) with a "Browse..." button
- guid: 3c659db1z11f14717216z2f78.pdf
- file size: 493KB
- presentation: show large icon (dropdown menu)
- tool tip elements: (checkboxes for description, file name, creation date, owner, file size)

Title

The title or name of the file service (as presented in the content).

Description

The description of the file service which can be presented in the file tool tip.

File name

The name of the file (as presented when downloaded)..

Upload file

Function for uploading a file.

Guid

The unique id of the file.

File size

The size of the downloadable file

Presentation

The file can be presented without an icon, with a small icon or with a large icon.

Tool tip elements

Use the check boxes to select the information that you want to be presented in the file tool tip.

Description	File description.
File name	The name of the file.
Owner	The file creator/owner
File size	The size of the file.
Creation date	The date that the file was created.