

Form submit component

The submit component is used for submitting forms. It implements value tests, custom designs and navigation designs.

Settings:

Name

The name of the 'submit button', this name is used as the input 'key' unless a 'input key' value is given.

Description

Description text of the 'submit button'.

Design template

If available, specific 'input' designs can be selected here.

Button caption

The caption of the button.