

Security components

Xsdot implemented a 3 layer authentication system into its web application server. By using authentication services, it is possible to give access or deny access to users on web servers, web application domains and specific web services or pages. As our web application server is hierarchical based our security system is also hierarchical based, easily apply authentication on web tree nodes.

Read more about security and web services protection in the 'Xsdot security systems' section of this site.

Xsdot security & authentication services

User component

Group component

User group component

User settings component

Logon indicator / Quick logon

Who is online service

Web services anti abuse system

Item security properties