

Link service

The link service has additional functions to the links that are created with the content service. The link service can for example have special designs and has options to target a link to a new window or popup.

