

Project services

Xsdot project services enable businesses or administrators to define projects and store project related documents or files like offers, contracts, architects in a database. A customer or relation is enabled to access project files online after authentication.

