

Agenda & appointment services

Agenda services are used to make appointments with customers and relations. The customer or relation is enabled to view its appointments online after authentication. Furthermore the appointments are posted by email or the administrator can print appointments on paper and post them. By using Xsdot's eMail and SMS services the relations can also be notified / reminded.

