

Group component

Administrators can define 'groups' that are used for attaching single users or user groups.

A group can be granted or denied access to hierarchical item nodes, services and functionalities in a application domain.

members	type	add
 Xsdot user group	user_group

Xsdot user group

- access items
- edit items
- place items
- change item properties
- delete items